3 Read the following, then answer the questions:

Some very rich people collect works of art. They often pay millions of dollars for a painting by a famous artist. These paintings usually become more valuable as time passes, so people buy them hoping to sell them at a later date for more than they paid for them.

We don't have to be rich, however, to start collecting things. There are many interesting things that are useful to collect all round us. Such collections may not be worth a lot of money, but they will be valuable to historians in the future. They will tell them many things about the way we lived in the twentieth and twenty first centuries. If we aren't collecting the same things that a friend is collecting, we can give him/her the things that we don't want. This kind of collecting with friends can be fun.

Paragraphs

1.My daily routine/ What do I do every day?

I'm thirteen years old. My daily routine is the same every day. I like getting up early, so I always get up at 6 in the morning. My mum always makes our breakfast. Then I have a shower and put on my school uniform. I always go to school by bus. My parents work at the nearby hospital. They get home late, so I often help to make dinner. In the evening, I do my homework, read on the sofa, watch TV and text my friends. I always go to bed at 9.

2.What I and my family usually do in the holidays

There are five people in my family: me, mum, dad and my two brothers. We don't usually have a routine in the holidays. I get up at 11. My mum is a housewife. I always help her make breakfast. My brothers help, too. My dad is a dentist. He usually takes us to a nearby park. We always play and have fun when we go there. We have lunch and take a lot of selfies there. We go home at about four o'clock. In the evenings, I often listen to music.

3.A description of my bedroom

We have a big family house. I like it so much. I really like my bedroom. There is always lots of sunshine when I open the curtains. I like seeing the sunshine when I get up. My bed is under the windows. I have a big wardrobe in front of the bed. There is also a sofa next to the window. I always read my favourite books on it. I put my things in a big chest of drawers. I don't have a basin in my bedroom because the bathroom is next to my room. I have a big mirror.

4.Different people in my family

I have many people in my family. We are all now in the park. My dad is playing chess with my uncle. My brothers are playing football. They always play football together. My mum and aunt are preparing for lunch. They are making us sandwiches. We are in a quiet place in the park. My sisters are taking selfies beside the flowers. We usually come to the park at the Weekends. We enjoy our time together there. We feel very happy at the park.

5.A description of my friends' photo

This is a photo of my friends and me. It shows that we are all happy and we smile. We took it yesterday in a nearby park. In the background, our fathers and mothers are sitting under a big tree. In the foreground, my friends Tamer and Salah are sitting on the grass. You can see some people walking beside where we are standing. We usually take photos when we get out together. I have a lot of photos in a big album.

6.What makes a hero?

A hero is someone who can be brave when they face a problem. A hero is a person who is able to help others. A person can become a hero by saving someone who is in danger. A hero is someone that puts people first. A hero thinks about other people before they think about themselves. Firefighters are heroes. They think about saving people. Sometimes a hero can be a teacher. He/ She can teach you to read and write. That will make a difference to your life. We have a lot of heroes who we're proud of in Egypt.

7.How my life used to be

My life was different when I was young. I used to have different activities. When I was seven, I used to help my parents in the house. I helped my mother with the kitchen work. I used to help my father with his work in the garden. When my family visited my grandparents, I used to help my grandfather on his farm. Now, I'm much older. I have a different house, different friends and different activities.

8.A hero I am proud of

I'm proud of Mrs Karima Mahmoud. She is a great woman. When she was young, she used to study hard to become a nurse. She worked hard to pay for her study. When she became a nurse, she helped many people in her hospital. Her patients like her because she is very kind. She became an important nursing manager.

9.How life used to be different in Ancient Egypt

Life in Ancient Egypt was different to today's life. Poor children didn't use to go to school. Children from rich families used to start school when they were about seven. Children used to enjoy playing games. When older parents died, they used to leave their houses to the sons. The Ancient Egyptians used to leave jewellery and furniture inside their houses to the daughters. They lived around the Nile River where they could grow crops. They built pyramids.

10. A description of a historic place I visited

It was our family's first trip to Luxor and Aswan. We flew to Luxor first. We began our tour with our guide named Ola. She made us feel happy and we visited all the places there. Ola was a clever guide. She gave us information about the ancient Egyptian culture. In Luxor, we visited the Luxor Temple and the Karnak Temple. We bought tickets for the Sound and Light Show at the Karnak at night. It was amazing. In Aswan, we visited many wonderful places. We visited the High Dam, the Philae Temple and the Aswan Museum. I recommend this trip my friends.

11. What I think of tourism.

Tourism is very important to Egypt. However, It brings money to the country. This helps the local people. But I don't think that tourism helps the environment. Tourists drop rubbish and damage places in other ways, like sitting on ancient ruins. They often travel by car. This makes pollution. However, most tourists behave well. They know it's important to protect historic places. When people visit a historic place, they understand why we need to protect it.

12. The rules for a place I visited

I visited the Egyptian Museum last weekend. It was a fantastic place. There are some rules I have to follow in this place. I mustn't drop rubbish. I mustn't damage objects. I mustn't touch any of them. I mustn't sit on stones. I must keep the place clean and safe. I mustn't use a camera. I must protect all the objects in the place. These historic places are very important to Egypt. Many tourists visit these places. We should treat them kindly.

13. What I think we can do to protect the environment

We can help protect the environment in our everyday life. The most important way to protect the environment is to plant trees. We must also stop cutting down trees. We mustn't destroy gardens and forests. We must use less water when we wash or brush our teeth. To protect the environment, we can walk, use bikes or public transport instead of our cars. Cars cause a lot of air pollution. We can collect rubbish and recycle it. This helps keep the environment clean.

14. A short story about a girl helping the poor

I read a story about a girl who lived in a small village. She used to help some old people near her house. She sometimes bought them some food, medicine and often got them clothes from other rich people. Although the girl wasn't rich, she thought of other people who need help. She thought that helping poor people can make the community more useful. So, if we all think like that girl, we will have a happy life.

15. Random acts of kindness

Our class decided to do one act of kindness every day for three days. This is what I did: on the first day, I bought my mother flowers. On the second day, I gave my seat to an old man on the bus. On the third day, I donated money and clothes to a charity which helps disabled people. My friend Hossam did some acts of kindness, too. On the first day, he gave money to a beggar. On the second day, he gave directions to a stranger. On the third day, he helped an old woman cross a street.

16. How I could help people in my community

I can do many acts of kindness to people in my community. I can work as a volunteer in a charity or hospital. I can pick up rubbish and put it in bins. I can help my neighbours by doing the shopping. I can donate things and money to a charity. I have to help my old neighbours. I have to keep the street clean. This helps the street cleaners so much. I have to help beggars who are hungry. I have to be helpful in my community.

17. How we can recycle rubbish at school

We have a problem at school. The problem is about rubbish. In our school, we have a rubbish bin everywhere. The students are very good and they always put their rubbish in the bins. The rubbish is collected every week and is sent to a special factory in the city. They can recycle a lot of paper or plastic. Before students put things in the rubbish bin, we ask them if they can recycle that. They can put it in a special bin so it can be used again.

18. How to use less water

Water is very important. We cannot live without it. Water makes up more than half of our body weight. Water is necessary for drinking, bathing, cooking, cleaning, washing and so on. We must save and recycle. People shouldn't waste water. Some people waste a lot of water by washing their cars. We should take a five-minute bath to save water. We should keep the lakes clean. People mustn't throw rubbish in rivers. They should help clean them all the time.

19. Helping the environment

Environment is the nature in which animals, plants and people live. It's very important to look after the environment. There are many ways to do that. We can plant trees. We can recycle rubbish. We mustn't throw waste in rivers. We should use green means of transport. We can live a happy life if we do these things. We shouldn't throw plastic bottles or rubbish in rivers. We should use electric cars. Electric Cars are very useful to the environment. We should keep the environment clean to live a happy life.

Azhar Paragraphs

1.What I do every day

I like getting up early, so I always get up at 6 in the morning. My mum always makes our breakfast. Then I have a shower and put on my school uniform. I always go to school by bus. In the evening, I do my homework, read on the sofa, watch TV and text my friends.

2.What I do at the weekend / My weekend activities

Hi, I'm Omar. I'm a prep-school student. I'm twelve years old. I live with my mum and dad in a small flat in Minya. At the weekend, I'm usually quite lazy. I usually spend a nice time with my family. My parents and I go and visit my grandparents at their house. Their house is bigger than our flat. On Saturday morning, I often stay in bed and then I have a late breakfast with grandmother - she's a fantastic cook!

C Reading Comprehension

3 Read the following, then answer the questions:

Some very rich people collect works of art. They often pay millions of dollars for a painting by a famous artist. These paintings usually become more valuable as time passes, so people buy them hoping to sell them at a later date for more than they paid for them.

We don't have to be rich, however, to start collecting things. There are many interesting things that are useful to collect all round us. Such collections may not be worth a lot of money, but they will be valuable to historians in the future. They will tell them many things about the way we lived in the twentieth and twenty first centuries. If we aren't collecting the same things that a friend is collecting, we can give him/her the things that we don't want. This kind of collecting with friends can be fun.

A. Answer the following questions:

1. Why do people sometimes pay millions of dollars for a painting?

2. What kinds of things are useful to historians? Why?

   ----

3. Why can it be fun to collect different things from a friend?

C Reading Comprehension

3 Read the following and answer the questions:

Last Friday, I went to the zoo with my family. It was a lovely day as we enjoyed seeing different kinds of animals. When we passed in front of the monkeys, baboons and gorillas, we were amused by their funny movements; jumping, running and going from one branch to another. We saw a gorilla feeds her baby as our mothers do. When we went to the hippo lake, we saw several hippos bathing in the water. The guard made one of them open its wide mouth while my sister quickly threw some grass into it. In the lion house, several lions were roaring and one of them was eating meat. We liked the king of beasts with its fine respectable appearance. In the end, we got tired and sat in the tea island where we ate sandwiches and had drinks. The swans were beautifully moving around in flocks.
